IGHTYEAR

A photograph of a blimp with the word "IGHTYEAR" written on its side in yellow, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The blimp is dark blue with yellow stripes. It is flying over a large stadium at night, which is filled with spectators and illuminated by bright lights. In the background, fireworks are exploding in the sky. The scene is framed by a white border, and the right side of the image shows the spiral binding of a notebook.
